When the offense is continuous or repetitious in nature, then each day that violation continues or is repeated shall be deemed a repetition of the offense and shall be punished as a separate distinct offense.
- C. Any person allegedly aggrieved by another person's violation of a regulation or order adopted under this Resolution may seek, in a civil action, a declaratory judgment (or), an injunction, or other appropriate relief against another person for committing the act or practice that violates that resolution or order. The court involved in the civil action may award to the prevailing party (a) reasonable attorney's fee(s) limited to the work reasonably performed.
